FLOODS DELAY MAILS.
Reports from Mississippi Valley Indicate Serious Conditions.

The flood situation in the Mississippi Valley, south of Memphis, remains as serious as reported two weeks ago, so far as the transportation of the mails is concerned. Reports made to Postmaster General Hitchcock by representatives of the Railway Mail Service in that section indicate that in many districts it will not be possible to re-establish regular mail service for more than thirty days.
Some time ago the Postmaster General directed that temporary mail service be done by established wherever possible, and in view of the continued serious conditions he has issued instructions that the order be extended.

Interruptions in the handling of mail as a result of the Mississippi floods during the past few weeks have been more serious than at any time in the history of the postal service, and from present indications it will be some time before regular service can be operated in the lower valley.

MISS CLARKE GETS MONEY.
Postal Order Which Saved with Titanic Redeemed.

Included in the wreck of the Titanic was a money order issued in England for seven pounds and drawn on the postmaster at Washington in favor of Miss Mabel Clarke, maid in waiting to Mrs. Taft.
When Miss Clarke read of the disaster she immediately notified the Post-office Department. Upon examination of the money order advice lists in the city postoffice it was found that the necessary advice had been received and, acting under instructions from Postmaster General Hitchcock, a duplicate money order for $7 was mailed to Miss Clarke without delay.

According to information received by Mr. Hitchcock yesterday about $100,000 in money orders went down when the Titanic sank.

den Ashford, Municipal Architect, for the erection of a public comfort station on Pierce Hill Road, in Rock Creek Park, behind the stables near the old mill. The estimated cost of the structure is $100. The plans have been approved by L. R. Grabill, assistant engineer in charge of Rock Creek Park, and the District Commissioners.

PURCHASE CONTROL OF UNION SAVINGS

Col. M. A. Winter and S. W. Woodward Buy Bank Stock of E.
Quincy Smith.

The controlling interest in the Union Savings Bank, owned by the president of the institution, E. Quincy Smith, has been purchased by Col. M. A. Winter and S. W. Woodward. The purchase was consummated late yesterday afternoon.

About a week ago Mr. Smith announced he intended to dispose of his holdings in the Fourteenth Street institution following his election as vice president of the United States and Mexican Trust Company, of New York. The interest held by Mr. Smith was formerly the property of his father, F. H. Smith, who organized the bank in 1881.

Following the announcement of the purchase yesterday afternoon, Col. Winter said he was not prepared to state whether the acquisition of Mr. Smith's holdings indicated a merger with the Mercantile Bank, at Ninth and G Streets, of which he is president, and Mr. Woodward, first vice president. He said an announcement regarding the future of the Union Savings Bank probably would be made in several days.

For several months there has been a persistent rumor in local financial circles that Mercantile Bank contemplated merging with another institution. For this reason it is believed that a merger between Union Savings and Mercantile is planned.

OBSERVE "CARNATION DAY." Many Flowers Sold for Benefit of School Playgrounds.

"Carnation Day" was observed yesterday as a means of replenishing the coffers of the Washington Playground Association. The proceeds from the sale of carnations will go toward the fund for the maintenance of the school playgrounds.

There were seven booths located in the business section of the city at which carnations were sold. The establishments at which stands were located were W. B. Moses & Sons, Woodward & Lothrop's, the Palais Royal, S. K. Kahan, Soms & Co., Landon's, Dulin & Martin's, and the New Willard Hotel. All of the carnations were donated by local florists. The sales were considered successful.

The teachers of the Smallwood School were in charge of the various booths.
Among those who assisted in the sales were Mrs. S. E. Wias, Miss V. V. Trook, Miss M. E. Garrett, Miss L. Hildley, Miss T. D. Adams, Miss M. M. Barrett, Miss M. E. Stallings, Miss Grace Rice, Miss E. F. Pettigale, Miss A. Hyer, and
A. C. Johnson, principal of the school.

HORSE SHOW RING COMMITTEE NAMED

Plans Complete for National Capital Horse Show, Which Opens Wednesday Afternoon.

Mal Henry T. Allen, A. D. Addison, Geo. C. R. Edwards, William Littauer, W. H. Brownson, and M. C. Hazen will constitute the ring committee of the National Capital Horse Show, which opens at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, according to announcement yesterday.

The horse show will start with the competition for the cup offered in the thoroughbred stallion class and five minutes later military chargers will be galloped onto the tankard. Fourteen other events are on the programme for the first day. Pairs of roadsters, six horses, two classes of novice harness horses, hunter pairs, one class of green hunters, light-weight polo ponies, and park hack will be seen the first afternoon.

The opening event Thursday will be one of the most spectacular of the entire show. The free-for-all jumping class will be called at 2 o'clock, and fifty horses will be put at the bars. The same number of horses will contest in the opening event Friday afternoon.

GIRL'S REQUEST IS DENIED.
Navy Department Unable to Give Young Swimmer a Convoy.

Although the Navy Department appreciates the patriotism of Miss Rose Pictonof, of Boston, the noted young woman swimmer, in determining to wear a bathing costume of the American colors in her swim across the English Channel, the department has decided that it cannot well assign a war ship as convoy to the swimmer.

This answer was given by Acting Secretary of the Navy Winthrop yesterday in a letter to Representative James M.
McCurley, of Boston. Mr. McCurley wrote to the Secretary of the Navy, saying Miss Pictonof's representative had appealed to him to obtain one or more war ships for the purpose. Accordingly, he asked that a torpedo boat or destroyer or a small battle ship be assigned to accompany her.

Adding Secretary Winthrop found it impossible to comply with the request because the American Navy has no European station, and because it would be impracticable to send a war ship from any other station for the purpose.

CHILDREN TO HOLD ANNUAL FESTIVAL

Folk Plays Will Mark Celebration of Tenth Anniversary of Neighborhood House.

The annual festival and exhibition of work and play by the children of Neighborhood House, 436 N Street Southwest, takes place next Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

The spring festival committee, Mrs.
Charles J. Neich, chairman, has prepared a programme for this year's celebration that promises to surpass all previous efforts.

Thursday will see a working exhibition of all the industrial classes from 4 to 6 o'clock. The sewing school, cooking classes, basket class, weaving, embroidery, metal craft, carpenter class, and garden club, with the products of their various industries for sale, will occupy the two hours. At 6 o'clock the same evening the same children will be seen in a play, called "Making a Home."

Friday the fundamental principles of the social club work will be shown through exhibitions and plays. Two special features will be a Japanese folk play, "The Tongue-cut Sparrow," given in a picturesque garden; and "Little Red Hiding Hood."

On Saturday at 4 o'clock there will be a street procession of the clubs and classes graphically showing the ten years' development of the folk festival idea.

CRICKET CLUB'S BIG HIT.
Minstrel Show Given in Aid of Building Fund a Success.

The entertainment given by the Washington Cricket Club Minstrels last Monday night at Pythian Temple for the building fund was a great success and the programme presented was thoroughly enjoyed. Joseph F. Whitmore's tenor solos were a distinct feature, while Arthur Pierce captured the crowd with his droll humor and excellent rendition of "Oceans Roll." Felix Mahoney, as a colored dancer, drew much to the meriment of the occasion, as did also Billy Morrell, Frank Restock, and Harry Kruger, who acted as end men.

The olio comprised splendid offerings by J. Frank Dugan, who rendered a bass solo that made the windows rattle, and this was offset by the quiet comedy of Eisenman and Martin, who gave a quiet skit entitled "A Wild Ride in an Auto." Miss May Plack, the premier danseuse, was unable to be present because of the death of Hon. George F. Huff. Her place was taken by two tiny tots, Misses Gertrude Skinner and Laura Turner, who danced and sang their way into the hearts of the assembly. Not the least feature of the programme was the performance of a scene from "Julius Caesar," the excellent characterization of the parts of Cassius and Brutus being in the hands of Talbot O. Puttisi and Thomas A. Bynum.

William H. Barthold gave a fine baritone solo, and Miss Inga Larsen rendered a sweet soprano aria. The juvenile chorus of the minstrels was made up of the choir of Christ P. E. Church, and their fresh, young voices added much to the success of the entertainment. It was announced last night that quite a large sum had been realized on the show and that the playgrounds in Rock Creek Park may soon become a reality as a result.
